

EU Member States (+UK and Russia) COVID-19 SITUATION TOY SECTOR at 10 November 2020 INTERNAL USE ONLY

 EU travel information	See European Commission website: https://reopen.europa.eu/en/
---	--

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
	Austria  Last update: 10/11/2020  All shops are allowed to open.  Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces. Masks are also required while shopping at outdoor markets.  From 3 November until 30 November, Austria is under partial lockdown. Shops are allowed to open, but Christmas market will not take place.	Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off points are allowed to operate.	Toy manufacturing is allowed.  Teleworking is recommended but not mandatory for all office jobs.		Kindergartens and schools (which have their class sizes halved) remain open.
	Belgium  Last update: 03/11/2020  From 2 November until 13 December, non-essential shops must close. Collection and home-delivery of goods ordered in	Online shops are active. Automated pick-up/drop-off	Teleworking will become mandatory. If it is not possible to work from home, wearing a face	A list of essential services has been defined. Companies from sectors considered essential do not	All schools will remain closed until November 15. After that, children at

Country		Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
		advance is possible. Customers cannot get inside the store. The sale of non-essential goods (which include toys) is not allowed in supermarkets and other stores that remain open. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.	points are allowed to operate.	mask in the workplace is compulsory and ventilation must be guaranteed. If not possible there are other measures in the following guide .	need to comply with the teleworking obligations. Toy industry representatives are working towards getting toys classed as essential goods.	kindergartens and primary schools will be allowed to attend school as normal.
	Bulgaria Last update: 03/11/2020	All shops are allowed to open. The use of masks is compulsory in all indoor public spaces. The mayor of Sofia has introduced a restriction to 100 people in malls and the big shops.		Employers should let staff work from home, where possible.		Primary schools remain open. Secondary schools are closed until 12 November.
	Croatia Last update: 27/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Masks are mandatory in shops. The use of masks is compulsory in all indoor public spaces.		Working from home is recommended where possible.		Most of the schools remain open.
	Cyprus Last update: 27/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. The use of masks is mandatory in indoor public spaces.	Online shops are active.			Schools remain open.

Country		Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
		Shops have dedicated time slots for people over 60 until 9am.
	Czech Republic Last update: 27/10/2020	From 21 October until 20 November, non-essential stores (including toy stores) have to close. The shops that are still allowed to open (supermarkets, gas station, pharmacies, garden centres) have to close by 8:00 pm and on Sundays. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.		People can go to work if necessary, otherwise are encouraged to work from home.		All schools except kindergartens are closed until 1 November.
	Denmark Last update: 23/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces for people over 12. Supervisory staff must be visible in shops larger than 2000 sqm.	Online shops are active.			Schools remain open.
	Estonia Last update: 15/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.				Schools located in Tallinn have switched to distance learning for children

Country		Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
	Finland Last update: 15/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Masks are recommended for employees in shops (and also general population over 15 years old).	Online shops are active.	People are expected to work from home if possible until at least the end of 2020.		from 8 th grade and above
	France Last update: 10/11/2020  The list of stores that are allowed to open will be reviewed on 12/11/2020	From 30 October and until 1 December, all non-essential stores (including toy shops) have to close. Click & collect schemes are authorized.  Toys are not allowed to be sold in supermarkets and other stores that remain open.  Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.	Online shops are active.	Teleworking is encouraged, but not mandatory.	Toy industry representatives have launched the campaign "Sauvons les jouets". It asks for the reopening on 13 November of toy shops and the sale of toys in supermarkets and other essential stores.	Schools remain open.

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
 Germany Last update: 03/11/2020	All shops are allowed to be open. From 2 November and during 4 weeks, there are capacity restrictions in place. A maximum of 1 person per 10 square meters is permitted. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.	Online shops are active.	Toy manufacturing remains authorized. Companies are requested to make work from home possible.		Schools remain open.
 Greece Last update: 10/11/2020	From 7 November until 30 November, non-essential shops (including toy shops) need to close. Toys are not allowed to be sold in supermarkets and other stores that remain open. Masks are mandatory in shops, in indoor public spaces. On 12 October, a COVID-19 risk map has been released. Provinces are classed as yellow, red or grey zones. Non-essential	E-commerce remains active.	Compulsory teleworking of at least 50% in the private and public sectors.		Schools and all kinds of educational structures remain open with the mandatory use of masks for children aged 4 and up, while for Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) only tele-education will apply.

Country		Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
		stores have to close in grey zones.
	Hungary Last update: 10/11/2020	All shops are allowed to open. From 10 November and for a duration of 30 days, shops need to close by 7pm  Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.				Primary schools and nurseries will continue to operate normally. Secondary schools will switch to remote learning
	Ireland Last update: 20/10/2020 Next update expected 2 December	From 21 October and during 6 weeks, only essential stores (supermarkets, pharmacies, hardware stores, gas stations) are allowed to be open. Toys cannot be sold in the stores that are open.  Click & collect schemes are authorized for non-essential stores.	Online shops are active.	Work from home unless you are providing an essential service for which your physical presence is required.	A list of essential services has been released. Workers in these categories are permitted to travel to work.	Schools and childcare services remain open with protective measures.
	Italy	Depending on their health indicators, regions are classed	Online shops are active.	Toy production and import are allowed.	Efforts from toy industry representatives have	High schools and secondary schools

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
Last update: 10/11/2020	into yellow, orange and red zones. In regions classed as red zones (Piemonte, Lombardy, Valle d'Aosta and Calabria) only essential shops can remain open. Toy shops are considered essential and can open. Toys can also be sold in supermarkets. In yellow and orange zones, shops can open. However, until 3 December, non-essential shops in shopping malls need to close. Essential stores in shopping malls (including toy stores) and all shops not located in shopping malls can open. Toys can also be sold in supermarkets. The use of masks is mandatory in indoor public spaces.		Working from home is encouraged.	resulted in toys being considered as an essential good.	will have to facilitate distance learning Schools closed in the region Campania. In the red zones, schools will remain open for students up to the sixth grade while older students will learn remotely.
 Latvia Last update: 10/11/2020	Shops not located in shopping malls are allowed to open.				Schools remain open for 1st – 6th graders, whereas 7th – 12th graders will

Country		Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
		From 9 November until 6 December, non-essential stores (including toy shops) in shopping malls need to close on weekends and bank holidays. Masks are mandatory in public places including shops.				undergo remote teaching.
	Lithuania Last update: 10/11/2020	From 6 November until 29 November, Lithuania is under partial lockdown. Shops are allowed to open. However, retailers need to supervise client flows, maintaining 10 square meters per customer.	Online shops are active.	Work from home is recommended but not mandatory.		Nurseries and primary schools will remain open for now, while secondary schools must make sure that at least 50 percent of their classes go online.
	Luxembourg Last update: 24/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Shops over 400 square meters need to maintain 10 square meters per customer. The use of masks is mandatory.	Online shops are active.		A list of essential services has been released.

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
 Malta Last update: 15/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.	Online shops are active.	Working from home has been encouraged. The use of masks is mandatory in offices.		Schools are open.
 Netherlands Last update: 27/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Retail stores must close at 8pm. Masks are mandatory in shops and other indoor public spaces.  According to their health indicators, Dutch regions have a different level of risk. The map is available here  Measures per risk level are indicated here .	Online shops are active.	Work from home unless not possible		Schools are open.
 Poland Last update: 10/11/2020	From 7 November and until 29 November, non-essential shops (including toy shops) that are in shopping malls need to close.  Shops not located in shopping malls can open but there are new capacity restrictions: - Shops up to 100 sqm need to maintain 10	Online shops are active.			From 24 October and until 29 November, remote learning is mandatory for students over 4 th grade. From 8 Am to 4 Pm, children up to 16 years old cannot go out alone, only under the

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
		square meters per customer. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Shops over 100 sqm need to maintain 15 square meters per customer.</li> </ul> The use of mask is mandatory in indoor public spaces.			supervision of an adult.
	Portugal Last update: 10/11/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces. A curfew has been implemented from 9 November and for two weeks in 121 municipalities, including Lisbon and Porto. People is not allowed to leave their homes after 11pm and until 5am during the week. On the weekends, the curfew starts at 1pm until 5am. Only essential stores (supermarkets, pharmacies, gas stations) can remain open after 1pm.	Online shops are active.	Working from home is the rule whenever possible.	Schools are open

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
 Romania Last update: 10/11/2020	All shops are allowed to open. However, from 9 November until 6 December, they need to close at 9pm. Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.	Online shops are active.	All workers are called to work from home if they are able to do so.		From 9 November schools and kindergartens will be closed throughout the country for 30 days.
 Russia Last update: 27/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. The use of medical masks is mandatory in indoor public spaces and crowded places.	Online shops are active.	From 5 October and until, at least 28 November, companies located in Moscow are required to transfer 30% of their employees to remote work. Employers are advised to transfer the maximum possible number of employees to remote mode.		Schools in Moscow are open for children below 6th grade. Older children will continue on distance learning until 22 November.
 Slovakia Last update: 27/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open. Shops need to maintain 15 square meters per customer.	Online shops are active.	Teleworking is recommended but not mandatory.		Kindergartens and primary schools are open. Parents also have the choice not to bring their

Country		Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
		Masks are compulsory in indoor public spaces.				children to kindergarten or primary or not. From 12 October, secondary schools have switched to distance learning until 30 November if the conditions allow.
	Slovenia Last update: 10/11/2020	From 22 October, non-essential shops (including toy shops) are not allowed to open.  From 6 November, car dealers, furniture stores, pedicure and shops specialized in baby and children care can reopen. These shops need to ensure 30 square meters per customer (or only 1 customer if the shop has less than 30 sqm)  Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces.	Online shops and delivery services are active.	Teleworking is recommended where possible.		All primary and secondary schools will switch to distance learning from 16 November. Kindergartens will continue to be open only for emergency childcare for parents.
	Spain	The use of masks is mandatory in indoor public spaces.	Online shops are active.	Toy manufacturing is authorized.	Toy industry representatives have launched the campaign "El	Schools remain open.

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
Last update: 10/11/2020 Map with applicable restrictions per town (in Spanish)	On 29 October, the state of alarm was declared. From now on, each of the 19 autonomous communities can apply further restrictions such as lockdown, stores closures and other emergency measures. MADRID All shops can open however their capacity is limited to 75% and need to close at 10pm. In those areas where emergency measures are in place (including some neighborhoods of Madrid) stores need to limit their capacity to 50% and close at 10pm. CATALONIA All shops under 800 sqm can open. Their capacity is limited to 30% and need to close at 9pm. Shops over 800 sqm need to restrict their sales area to 800sqm and limit their capacity to 30%.			Juguete es esencial". It asks for toys to be considered as essential goods, therefore avoiding restrictions on the sale of toys in case of lockdown.

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
	Non-essential shops inside shopping malls need to close unless they have a direct access to the street and less than 800sqm. Their capacity needs to be restricted to 30%. ANDALUSIA From 10 November and until 23 November, non-essential shops (including toy shops) need to close at 6pm. Only essential shops are allowed to open in Granada. VALENCIA REGION From 6 November and until 9 December, all shops need to limit their capacity to 50%. ASTURIAS All non-essential shops (including toy shops) are closed until 16 November. NAVARRRE From 22 October and until 23 November, all shops need to

Country		Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
		limit their capacity to 40% and close by 9pm
	Sweden Last update: 20/10/2020	All shops are allowed to open.	Online shops are active.	People are recommended to work from home when possible.	Although Sweden has not put in place strict activity restrictions, the government has identified 12 key sectors .	Schools remain open.
	Switzerland Last update: 03/11/2020	All shops are allowed to open. The use of masks is mandatory in indoor public spaces.  From 1 November and for 4 weeks, non-essential stores in the Geneva canton are closed.		People are recommended to work from home when possible.		Schools remain open.
	United Kingdom  Last update: 10/11/2020	ENGLAND From 5 November, and for 4 weeks, non-essential stores (including toy shops) are not allowed to open. Click and collect schemes are authorized.  Masks are mandatory in indoor public spaces  WALES	Online shops are active	Remote working is not mandatory but strongly encouraged if possible		Schools remain open in England, Scotland and Northern Ireland.  Schools are open in Wales. However, secondary school pupils above Year 8 have online learning only

Country	Shop status	E-commerce status	Work	Essential goods or services	Schools /Children staying at home (local measures can apply)
	From 9 November, all shops are allowed to open again. SCOTLAND All shops are allowed to open provided they have put in place measures to ensure the safety of consumers. NORTHERN IRELAND All shops are allowed to open. Safety measures such as use of masks and distance between customers have to be in place.				